

To whom it may concern,
I am a subscriber and supporter of XM Satellite Radio. I live in the Washington DC metro area but frequently travel throughout the eastcoast from Florida to New Hampshire. The XM Satellite Radio feed I get is often times the only radio feed available during my travels. Without alternative, ie., AM or FM, radio availability the satellite feed I get is the only source of weather and traffic updates.